Comments from the Monarch coaching staff:

Thought we wrestled fairly well tonight and had a couple tighly contested duals. Kudos to some of our freshmen for stepping into the lineup and wrestling tough. It's not the most fun task, but taking some lumps and getting a taste of varsity competition will help them out in the future.

Our regular varsity girls had some moments we liked. Yarecze Rodriguez and Gracen Plagge both went 3-0 on the night. Daniela Salinas, Giana Garcia, and Kasandra Barroso each lost tightly contested matches that we can reflect on and use as we prep for regionals next week. Thought we did a better job of being ready to wrestle from the first whistle than we have at times this year. We're starting to know what we're looking for and recognizing when it's there.

The varsity will be back in action at a tough tournament on Saturday in Atlantic and we're taking the JV to Council Bluffs on Monday for their last meet of the season.
