Junior Vorsity Desults

Comments from the Monarch coaching staff:

I thought tonight was a bit of an eye opener for some of the girls. The competition was certainly top-notch: Spencer and Ridge View were two of the first programs in the state to embrace girls wrestling and Creston has always been a tough wrestling town. There were multiple returning state qualifiers, state placers, and a state champ in our gym on opening night, which was fun to watch.

We wrestled tough, as expected. Our girls are tough as nails, but we need to work on staying out of and getting out of situations that require us to display so much toughness to not get turned. The best part about tonight is that we have some direction moving forward - we know what we need to work on. We're excited to get back in the room to fix some things and introduce a few new techniques.

It wasn't all gloomy - wrestling is a funny sport in that the result doesn't always tell the story of the match. We had the lead in a few matches and ended up getting pinned. We found ourselves in a few 50/50 situations where some small adjustments - running our feet, keeping our hips high, etc. - could have turned the outcome in our favor. Those are all fixable and we can clean that stuff up.

Our lineup will shift a bit as we move forward. Some girls will take a week or two to get down to their preferred weight class and competition in the room will make the cream rise to the top.

Giana Garcia and Taylor Walker both gutted out tough, come-from-behind wins against Creston and Daniela Salinas won by fall. Gracen Plagge didn't get a match due to opens and we're excited to see her in action this season. Angie Rivera will be back next week to kick off her season.

There's plenty of work to do before we're back in action Saturday in Onawa.
